The book begins with a blizzard that hits Deadwood, trapping the town's residents inside. As the snow falls, a series of strange events begin to occur. First, the town's water supply is poisoned, then the telegraph lines are cut, and finally, the town's bank is robbed. Sheriff Bullock and Deputy Stapleton are called in to investigate, and they quickly realize that they are dealing with a group of criminals who are determined to take over Deadwood.

As the investigation progresses, Bullock and Stapleton uncover a web of secrets and lies that reach all the way to the top of Deadwood society. They must race against time to find the criminals and stop them from carrying out their plans. Along the way, they will encounter a cast of colorful characters, including a saloon owner with a gambling problem, a dance hall girl with a secret past, and a mysterious stranger who seems to know more than he lets on.
