Here are some of the most bizarre and memorable things that hikers have come across while out on the trail:

A talking tree

One hiker reported encountering a talking tree while on a trek in the Amazon rainforest. The tree was said to be able to speak several languages, and it told the hiker all about the history of the rainforest and the animals that lived there.

A giant squid

Another hiker reported seeing a giant squid while on a trek in the Pacific Ocean. The squid was said to be over 100 feet long, and it had huge tentacles that could crush a human being.

A UFO

One hiker reported seeing a UFO while on a trek in the mountains. The UFO was said to be shaped like a disc, and it emitted a bright light. The hiker said that the UFO flew over his head and then disappeared into the clouds.

A ghost

One hiker reported seeing a ghost while on a trek in a haunted forest. The ghost was said to be the spirit of a woman who had been murdered in the forest many years ago. The ghost was said to appear as a white figure, and it would often cry out in pain.

A yeti

One hiker reported seeing a yeti while on a trek in the Himalayas. The yeti was said to be a large, hairy creature that walked on two legs. The hiker said that the yeti was very shy, and it quickly ran away when it saw the hiker.

These are just a few of the many unusual things that hikers have encountered while out on the trail. If you're ever lucky enough to go on a hectic trek, be sure to keep your eyes peeled for something strange and wonderful.
