The Legacy of Half Moon Ranch

Nestled amidst the breathtaking landscapes of Texas Hill Country, Half Moon Ranch has been a sanctuary for exceptional horses for over half a century. Founded by the legendary rodeo champion, Rocky Hamilton, the ranch has become synonymous with the highest standards of equine breeding, training, and competition. With a deep-rooted passion for the sport of rodeo, Hamilton dedicated his life to creating a legacy of unparalleled equine athletes.

World-Renowned Bloodlines

The foundation of Half Moon Ranch's success lies in its meticulously curated Quarter Horse bloodlines. Over generations, the ranch has acquired the finest horses from legendary sires such as Poco Bueno, Leo, and Dash for Cash. These bloodlines have bestowed upon Rodeo Rocky Horses exceptional athleticism, intelligence, and versatility. Each horse is carefully selected and bred to maximize its potential in the competitive world of rodeo.

Exceptional Training Methods

At Half Moon Ranch, training is not merely a regimen; it's an art form. The ranch's team of experienced trainers employ a holistic approach that nurtures the physical, mental, and emotional well-being of each horse. From the moment a foal is born, it receives individualized attention and training customized to its unique abilities. Through consistent handling, positive reinforcement, and precision techniques, Rodeo Rocky Horses develop an unwavering bond with their handlers and a remarkable ability to execute complex maneuvers flawlessly.

Competitive Triumphs

The true measure of Rodeo Rocky Horses' excellence lies in their unparalleled success on the competitive rodeo circuit. Throughout the years, Half Moon Ranch has produced countless champions in various disciplines, including barrel racing, calf roping, and team roping. The ranch's horses have consistently dominated major rodeos across the United States, earning numerous awards and accolades. Their consistent performance not only showcases their exceptional athletic abilities but also the unwavering commitment and dedication of their trainers and handlers.
