Here are some tips for identifying your target audience:

- Consider your current clients. Who are your best clients? What do they have in common?
- Research your industry. What are the trends in your industry? Who are the key players?
- Use online tools. There are a number of online tools that can help you identify your target audience.

Once you have identified your target audience, the next step is to start building relationships with them. This is essential for attracting and retaining your ideal dream clients.

Here are some tips for building relationships with your clients:

- Be authentic. People can tell when you are being fake, so be yourself.
- Be helpful. Offer your help without expecting anything in return.

- Be responsive. Respond to your clients' inquiries promptly.
- Be consistent. Provide your clients with a consistent experience.

Once you have built strong relationships with your clients, you are ready to start closing deals. This is the final step in the process of attracting your ideal dream clients.

- Be prepared. Do your research and know what you are talking about.
